

Product Safety Recall

Huggies Thick Baby Wipes Fragrance Free - Limited Edition, Tropical The Little Mermaid and Toy Story, Rex (dinosaur) designs (80s pack)

Sold at supermarkets and Chemist Warehouse nationwide from approximately 1 October 2021 onwards.

Batch codes: B21072004 and D21072005, produced on 21 July 2021. Note: affected batches appear in The Little Mermaid and Toy Story, Rex (dinosaur) pack designs (as depicted above).

Defect: It has been identified that a bacterium (burkholderia cepacia) may be present in the wipes from the above batches.

Hazard: Whilst this bacterium poses little medical risk to healthy people, it may cause serious infections or health complications in those with weakened immune systems.

What to do: Please check the production stamp on the side of pack for the above batch codes. If you find matching wipes, please stop using them and contact us.

Contact details: Please contact our Huggies Customer Care team by calling 0800 733 703 (10am to 6pm Monday to Friday NZDT) or through our contact form at <https://www.kimberly-clark.co.nz/en/contact-us/> so that we can arrange a replacement or gift card.
